

Plenary Session 1.

Historical epidemiology and environmental change

Guido Alfani
(Bocconi University, Milan)

Environmental change and socio-demographic change: lessons from the history of plague in Europe

Kees Klein Goldewijk
(Utrecht University)

Plagues and Plows. Human-environmental interaction in the past

Angelique Janssens
(Radboud University, Nijmegen)

Death and Disease: a pan-European approach to epidemiological change

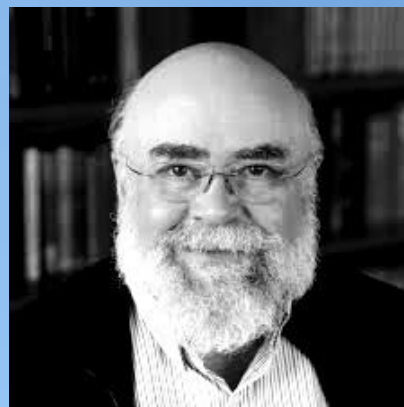

Jamie Pearce
(University of Edinburgh)

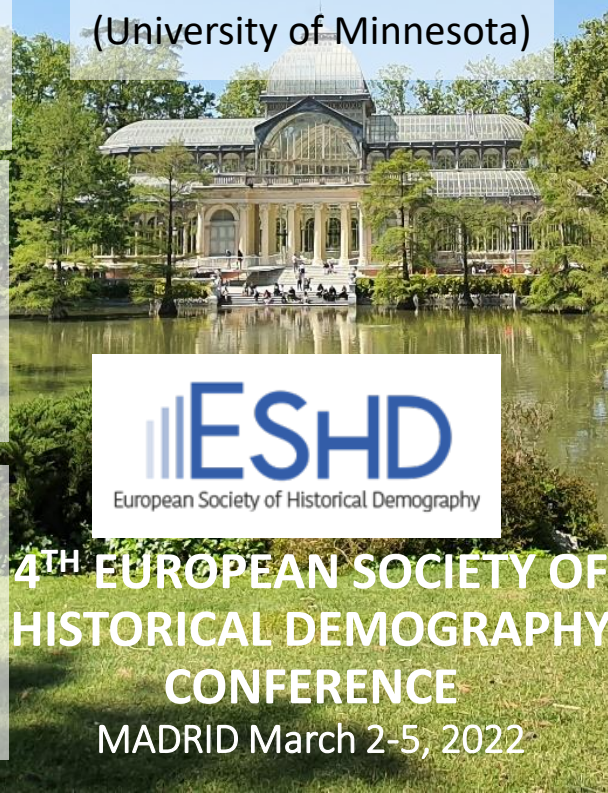

The life course of place: how environments throughout life affect health

Opening Lecture

Big Data in Historical Demography: The IPUMS Experience.

Steven Ruggles
(University of Minnesota)

ESHD

European Society of Historical Demography

4TH EUROPEAN SOCIETY OF HISTORICAL DEMOGRAPHY CONFERENCE

MADRID March 2-5, 2022

Plenary Session 2.

Genes, life course and social inequalities in health

Clare Bamba
(Newcastle University)

The Unequal Pandemic: COVID-19 and health inequalities

Jennifer Dowd
(University of Oxford)

Biological underpinnings of social inequalities in health

Nicola Barban
(University of Bologna)

Families, genes and the evolution of social inequalities. New data and challenges

Hiram Beltran Sanchez
(University of California at Los Angeles)

Inequalities in adult survival associated with cumulative physiological deterioration

